

Baltimore County Public Schools Principal of the Year Award 2017

The Baltimore County Public Schools' Principal of the Year will recognize outstanding school leaders who create a culture of deliberate excellence for every student. These leaders ensure that all students have equitable access to learning. The selection criteria reflect the core values and goals of Blueprint 2.0, the ISLLC Standards, and the Maryland Instructional Leadership Framework. This year, a Principal of the Year will be announced at the both the elementary and the secondary level.

Selection Criteria

- The school culture promotes staff collaboration and equity, access, and success for all students.
- Instruction is accessible, research-based, rigorous, relevant, and engaging for all students.
- Data-driven decision making drives meaningful changes in teaching and learning to raise the bar and close gaps for all students.
- Professional development opportunities for all school staff are based on addressing teacher and student learning.
- The larger community is engaged in the work of the school.
- The school environment is safe and conducive to learning.

Eligibility

All Baltimore County Public Schools' principals from schools, centers, and programs are eligible for nomination.

Procedures

If a school community would like to nominate a principal for Principal of the Year, the following steps must be completed:

1. The school community creates a nomination committee comprised of at least one of each of the following:
 - a. Students
 - b. Teachers
 - c. Parents, colleagues, and/or community members
2. The school's nomination committee collectively completes the components of the online Nomination Application.
3. The school's nomination committee e-mails the completed nomination application.

Once nominations are submitted, the BCPS Principal of the Year Selection Committee will:

1. Review submitted nomination applications to ensure that they are complete.
2. Notify nominated principals and invite them to submit a principal's application for the award.
3. Review principals' applications and make a selection.

Questions regarding the nomination application or process may be directed to Heather Lageman, hlageman@bcps.org.
