

SCHOOL SAFETY TIPS

Randallstown Elementary School provided the backdrop for a press conference on August 20, 2013, during which students, staff, district administrators, and special guests, joined traffic safety partners in issuing key reminders for road safety. The purpose of the media briefing was to highlight rules of the road- what every driver and parent should know; the statewide education effort for pedestrian safety; and enforcement efforts as the 2013-2014 school year begins. The Honorable Adrienne Jones, Speaker Pro Tem of the House; Chief James Johnson, Baltimore County Police Department; Dale Rauenzahn, Executive Director, Department of School Safety and Security; and James Mitcherling, Director, Office of Transportation were among the attendees.

Safety slogans included:

Drive Smart. Slow Down. Stay Alert. Stop for Pedestrians.

Stop for Pedestrians. Drive Safely.

Drive Smart! Stop for Pedestrians

Walk Smart! Use Crosswalks

Stop for School Buses
